Summary

As a backend developer, I have experience with Node.js, Nest.js, and Express.js. I am skilled in working with database management tools such as PostgreSQL, Sequelize, TypeORM, and Prisma. I also have strong proficiency in working with MongoDB and Mongoose. I am passionate about building high-performance, scalable, and optimized systems. I have also worked with React.js and Next.js and have used UI libraries like Material-UI and Ant Design. Additionally, I have experience using Tailwind CSS for styling.
